Signs for Visitors

Today, many people from other countries visit Japan. However, it is sometimes difficult for them to find famous places. Some towns put up signs in English and other languages, and in this way, they help visitors enjoy sightseeing. Some local people also work as volunteer guides for visitors.

A

B

